This report is typed by P.O. David J. PASZKIEWICZ assigned to the Early Shift at District Five, Squad 5242. On Sunday, December 6, 2009 at approximately 6:40pm my partner P.O. Steven ROEGLIN and I were dispatched to 1100 W. Chambers St. for a battery domestic violence complaint. On our arrival I spoke to the caller/victim, a Darcy E. MAKI(W/F 4-7-83) who stated that her boyfriend, with whom she formerly resided with for nearly three years, a Antonio L. HOSKINS(B/M 2-3-88) battered her today causing her pain and physical injury. MAKI stated that around 6:30pm today, she was inside HOSKINS' mother's house located at 3237 N. 10th St. MAKI stated she was about to eat dinner when HOSKINS came into the residence and told her that they needed to talk. MAKI stated that she asked HOSKINS if he was going to strike her, and he stated "No."

MAKI stated that she and HOSKINS then went into the bathroom area where he began to question her about text messages she gave his "other baby mama." MAKI stated that HOSKINS asked her if she text his "baby mama" about having sex or not, and MAKI stated that she told his "baby mama" the truth. MAKI stated that this enraged HOSKINS and he immediately grasped for her throat "choking her neck." MAKI stated that HOSKINS strangled her so hard that she was unable to yell for help and she felt like she was losing her life. MAKI stated HOSKINS mother finally came to the door and he let her go. MAKI stated she attempted to run out of the bathroom, but as she did HOSKINS struck her one time in the head with a closed fist.

MAKI also stated at this time that she is currently two months pregnant with HOSKINS child. MAKI stated as she was struck in the head she fell to the floor and HOSKINS began to strike her repeatedly in the head and face area with a closed fist. MAKI stated at this time, HOSKINS yelled to her, "Bitch, I'm gonna kill you, and I'm gonna kill that baby too." MAKI stated HOSKINS continued to strike her until his mother's boyfriend pulled him off of her. MAKI stated HOSKINS then grabbed a 2x4 piece of wood and attempted to break out her cousins car windows in front of the residence. MAKI then stated HOSKINS took the 2x4 and swung it at her striking her in the back several times. MAKI stated HOSKINS over heard that the police were being called and he jumped into a gray Pontiac and fled the scene.

MAKI stated on scene that all these actions caused her pain and injury and she wishes to prosecute for this offense. On 11th and Chambers I observed several visible injuries to MAKI. I observed a swollen left eye/cheek area. A small laceration to the top of MAKI's head, several red marks to the her lower back, consistent with the strikes of an object. I also observed a small bruise to the right side of MAKI's forehead. I took thirteen photographs depicting MAKI's injuries. HOSKINS mother was present at 1100 W. Chambers St., but refused to give any statements regarding this incident.

After leaving MAKI my partner and I went to 5201 W. Lisbon Ave. #2, the last known address for HOSKINS, but were unable to locate him at this time. My partner also contacted the domestic abuse hotline and spoke with Carlotta at 9:12pm regarding this incident.

This case is pending district attorney review.

PV-17 issued.

This supplemental report is typed by P.O. David J. PASZKIEWICZ assigned to the Early Shift at District Five, Squad 5242.

On Thursday, December 10, 2009 at approximately 8:00pm, I conducted a phone interview with Kayla A. PRICE, (W/F, 3-29-91) regarding an incident that took place on Sunday December 6, 2009 between her cousin, a Darcye E. MAKI, (W/F, 4-7-83) and her boyfriend, a Antonio L. HOSKINS, (B/M, 2-3-88). PRICE stated her and MAKI went over to HOSKINS mom's residence for dinner that night. PRICE stated sometime during the evening HOSKINS came over to the residence and asked to speak with MAKI. PRICE stated she hear MAKI ask HOSKINS if he was going to hit her, and he stated no. PRICE stated that went into the bathroom for a while and when HOSKINS' mother finally managed to get into the bathroom, her cousin MAKI was "all swelled up."

PRICE stated as soon as MAKI came out, PRICE began trying to strike her and chase her around the house. PRICE stated everyone managed to get HOSKINS out of the house, but no one was able to lock the door in time; therefore, HOSKINS managed to get back in the house, this time with a weapon. PRICE stated HOSKINS came inside the house with a big, wooden 2x4 and began to strike MAKI with it. PRICE stated HOSKINS struck MAKI at least 15 times with the 2x4 hitting her all over the body including the head and back area. PRICE stated HOSKINS then ran outside and attempted to break her car window with a frying pan. PRICE stated HOSKINS heard that the police were being called, and he fled the scene. PRICE stated these are the events she recalls from that evening.
